community who participated last Saturday in the Mattapoisett Blood Drive Day. First, we'd like to thank the blood donors, for with their donations, they have made it possible to have a community blood bank which we, the community, can draw on when in need of blood. Please remember that this blood is given with the residents of the community in mind and the donors want you to know that the blood is available to any resident. If you find yourself or someone you know with a blood need, please call Laura Horne at 758-3373 (after 3:00 p.m.).

Secondly we want to thank all those people who donated their time and efforts to making the Mattapoisett Blood Drive Day a success. There were numerous jobs these people filled which included a telephone recruitment of donors, transporting, babysitting, baking, typing, taking temperatures of donors, and many other necessary operations involved with the blood drive. The volunteer services are invaluable and deeply appreciated. A sincere thank you from all of us on the Mattapoisett Blood Drive Committee to our volunteers and blood donors.

Council on Aging

Last Thursday our Minibus took a full bus load to the Kennedy Memorial Library in Dorchester, and we all enjoyed this new type of exhibit with its tape recordings, motion pictures, and many memorabilia of the Kennedy years. We enjoyed luncheon at the South Shore Plaza, and, after a little shopping tour, braved our way home in the unfavorable weather of an unpredicted storm. Nevertheless, it was a fine trip, and if an excess of Seniors call for next Thursday's repeat of this trip, we will plan a third trip
in the near future.

Do you remember that we requested all Seniors interested in the Flower Show in Boston to let Senior Aid Amy Peters know?
So far we have had only ten call in. This would indicate a trip by Minibus--possibly two trips if enough additional Seniors call.

STUDENTS LEARN ABOUT CHINESE NEW YEAR

Mrs. Meiling Yen came to Center School last Thursday. She told us about Chinese New Year and showed us many things from China, like her statue of Buddha. She told us that if you rubbed his stomach you would get good luck, so we all did. She also showed us the tea holder to keep tea warm, and it was steaming hot.

Red gives good luck, too, so the flowers and embroidered cloths were all this color, as well as the gift envelopes that presents are put in. The scented fans smelled like

Ruth McHugh lost 35 lbs. and 44 inches without having to give up manicotti

From 155 to 120 pounds in 75
days ... without being hungry!

Ruth McHugh is one of thousands who've lost up to a pound a day with Nutri/System.

(And without diet pills, injections or strenuous exercise !)

Eating was still fun!

Instead of constantly making food decisions, counting calories and suffering through bland, boring "diet" foods, Ruth ate delicious Nutri/System meals. Satisfying dishes enjoyable alone or in recipes like Chicken Divan, Seafood Manicotti, Lemon Rum Pudding, even pizza and milkshakes!

Medical Supervision

A team of doctors and registered nurses supervised Ruth's program throughout her weight-loss program.

New habits save money

Ruth learned new eating habits to help her maintain her new weight. And, by eating Nutri/System foods instead of her regular diet and by eliminating costly "junk" foods, she actually found herself saving money by being on the program!

Ruth at 155 lbs. ... and at 120 lbs.

Rochester Regional High School; and Gregg Lee, adjustment counselor for the junior and senior high schools.

There will be a meeting at O.R.R.J.H.S. on February 14th at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria to announce final plans for the Forum and to discuss our plans of the future.

We are in the process of investigating a parent's suggestion to bring former New Jersey Detective David Toma to O.R.R. to spend a day with the students and an evening with parents. The cost of producing this program is being explored. We would appreciate all who are interested in this matter to attend our meeting on the 14th.

A request was made at our October meeting for a program on Peer Pressure among students. In December such a meeting was held with 45 parents participating. David Hagen, principal of the high school; Robert Gardner, principal of the junior high school; Ed Jawor, assistant principal; Robert Iwaszko, assistant principal; and Bert Allain, guidance counselor, were present to answer questions and give their views on peer pressure. At this meeting a communications seminar was set up for 11 parents who are meeting for 5 weeks under the guidance of Bert Allain, who graciously has donated his time and experience to guide this group. A BIG THANK YOU to Mr. Bert Allain.

Other items discussed at this meeting and which we hope to follow through on are: daily absenteeism, in-school suspensions, late buses, and a committee to function as FORAM did (Friends of Old Rochester Arts and Music).

If you have any questions on these matters or any others please come and share your ideas with us on the 14th.

What would YOU like to see your school doing? Where would YOU like to help?

SCOUTS TO CELEBRATE "THINKING DAY"

Mattapoisett Brownies, Junior Scouts, and Cadettes will celebrate "Thinking Day" at a sunrise service February 22 on the Mattapoisett Town Wharf.

The event will include a flag ceremony and presentation of the Girl Scout troops' contributions to the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund.

"Thinking Day" was established in 1926 to promote Girl Scouting in underprivileged areas of the world. The date was chosen because it was the joint birthdays of Lord and Lady Baden-Powell of England. Lord Baden-Powell was the founder of Scouting and his wife was the first world guide chief.

TO THE GOOD FOLKS OF MATTAPOISETT

To all who know Mr. David Roy Betts of Pine Island Road, that gentle, kindly, respectful gentleman. On his ninety-eighth (98) birthday February seventh, our good Lord gave him a beautiful gift of snow. Please God Bless and keep an extra special watch over him in 1980.

Bowling League

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE - Feb. 5

Louis McFeeley's speedy delivery brought a 361 for Nanfelt's Minks, but it was only enough to save one point from Hartley Saw Mill (Henry Hartley 407). Eddie Arruda (370) led a three man Sturtevant and Hook team to a two point win over the BowlMor four. Bob Jefferson's league leading 131 average suffered little with the 383 tossed for BowlMor. It was Charlie Savery Jr.'s turn to treat as he blasted a 173, 426 for Marion Golf in a clean sweep of Herb's T.V. (Paul White 382). With two men out, Bourassa beat Guaranteed Pest Control two points. Jerry Bourassa (381) and Buzzy Ladner (338) were high for their respective teams.

Besides being the best place for ice skating, the pond has a story of its own, changing with every season, having its own life cycle, and being, in itself, a unique habitat and shelter for specific types of wildlife. The pond's role in the Winter months is just as interesting as any other season, and is a source of discovery for curious minds, young and old. The field walk will begin at 10:00 a.m. and is free to all ages.

Unable to be present due to illness was present State Committee Woman, Kathy Lynch, who is seeking re-election.

It was voted that the money raised this summer from the paper drive collection be donated to the James Shepley Fund.

The coming presidential primary on March 4th was discussed and people were urged to organize support for the candidate of their choice.

on April 29 with a house-to-house solicitation in Marion and throughout the state, Dr. Briggs noted. More than 95,000 volunteers statewide will participate in this effort.

"We want to help both the patient and the family cope with cancer," said Dr. Briggs. "Some people think that the American Cancer Society is only concerned with research. But helping the cancer patient is another major ACS responsibility.

"Free clinics for detection of cancers of the breast, lung, colon and rectum, and other sites; seminars for medical professionals, transportation for patients, and a 'loan closet' of sick room supplies -- these are just a few of the ways the American Cancer Society puts the contributions of Marion's citizens to work."

SHIPBUILDERS OF MATTAPOISETT

By Charles S. Mendell, Jr.

But I suppose the best known New Bedford whaler built in Mattapoisett during this period was the Young Phoenix, built in 1822 by Barstow and Holmes. In a private New Bedford newspaper of the period we read this rather prejudiced account:

"September 28, 1822; Arrived, Mr. John A. Parker's new ship from Mattapoisett; she has been for some time on her way, being unfortunate, we understand, that her name is the Young Phoenix and Captain Joseph Dunbar is going master of her."

The Young Phoenix sailed for four years between New Bedford and Sweden in the iron trade for John A. Parker, and then he handled her as a whaler for 30 years. In 1857 she was sold to William Phillips & Son, and it was while sailing for that firm that she made the famous rescue of the 42 survivors of the wreck of the Scottish Bark

From 1830 to 1840 over fifty whaleships were launched from the Mattapoisett yards. To Nantucket went most of these, although not a few sailed under flags of New Bedford firms; and of course many Nantucket whalers ultimately were sold to New Bedford.

A Nantucket anecdote shows in what high regard these vessels were held. Some 30 years ago a Mattapoisett man was visiting in Nantucket, and without letting on where he was from, asked an old whaleman where Nantucket got her whaleships. The old timer replied:

"Oh, we got 'em from everywhere; but we got our best ones from a little place near New Bedford, a town called Mattapoisett."

The best known whaler built here during these ten years was the Ship Sharon, built by Gideon Barstow & Son in 1837 for Gibbs and Jenney of Fairhaven. In 1842 the Sharon, while whaling in mid-Pacific, was the scene of a peculiar mutiny. The crew were all out chasing whales, leaving the captain, the cabin boy, and three Kanaka sailors to tend ship. Sneaking up behind the captain, the Kanakas struck him dead, and then chased the cabin boy in the rigging. When the boats returned, the natives threatened to kill the first man to set foot on board. The crew waited until dark;

then the 3rd mate climbed up the rudder and through the stern windows, and by a surprise attack killed one of the mutineers and held the others off until the rest of the crew got aboard.

The running of a shipyard was an undertaking requiring a great deal of shrewdness, judgment, and business acumen. Not only did the shipbuilder need a complete knowledge of ship construction, and the vagaries of different kinds of timber, but he also handled 50 or 60 men -- all of whom had to be good. He had to be able to calculate up into tens of thousands of dollars on a job involving all sorts of material -- timber, iron, oakum, lead, paint, spars, canvass, cordage, and varnish. He had to keep his eye on the general financial condition of the nation, for shipbuilding is always the first industry that depression brings to a standstill. He had to keep in touch with all sorts of new appliances and size up their true worth at short notice. And above all he had to be a shrewd man at finances and keeping costs down, for an additional few hundred dollars in costs would come near to putting him out of business.

In the early days, money -- actual money -- was a rare commodity; and consequently, in order to enable himself to pay his men, every shipbuilder ran a store in connection with his yard. The present Anchorage Gift Shop* was such a store, built by Barstow & Holmes in 1820. These stores were kept stocked with provisions brought from New York by packet sloops, of which each shipbuilder had one or two; and with the goods

thus bought at wholesale, the workmen were paid at retail. No shipcarpenter received wages; he traded at his employer's store, and from time to time a reckoning
was made and the amount of his purchase balanced against so many days' work on the ship. One is struck, and amused, by the frequency with which these two columns precisely balance each other. Only rarely did the shipbuilder owe his men
any cash.

TOLL FREE PHONE FOR BOURNE BRIDGE USERS

Motorists using the Bourne Highway Bridge over the Cape Cod Canal and having questions about the traffic pattern during major rehabilitation of the structure can now call a toll-free telephone number.
The 800-342-8771 number will put the public in touch with the Public Affairs Office of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers at Waltham, Mass., the agency responsible for the $10.9 million refurbishing of the 46 year old structure.

"We plan to maintain the toll-free number to accommodate the public as long as the need is evident," Colonel Max B. Scheider, head of the New England Division, said.

During work to replace the bridge deck,
structural members and painting, the traffic pattern will continue as follows: northbound (off-Cape) from 6:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. and from 2:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. Between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. traffic will move south (on-Cape). From 7:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m. alternate one-way traffic is regulated by on-site police officers using traffic light signals. The bridge will be fully open, with all lanes in use, between Memorial Day and Labor Day.

Work on the Bourne Bridge is on schedule
and should be completed in May of 1981.
Similar rehabilitation will then begin on the Sagamore Bridge, with completion scheduled for May of 1984.
